

ANJO INSURANCES

FALMOUTH BRANCH

Anjo Insurances established 1928 in St. John's, Antigua has been providing insurance services to the people of Antigua and Barbuda for over 87 years. Proudly they were the first Insurance agency to become part of the National Parks Landscape some six and a half years ago.

In June 2009 its satellite branch doors opened on Dockyard Drive, English Harbour in the old Anchorage Commercial Building. As years passed, growth of business within the community of St. Paul's and surrounding areas created a demand for more staff to service the clients. A bigger location was required. In November 2013 they relocated to their present location on Falmouth Main Road in the Hawkins Building which sits just below Monks Hill.

Like its Main Office in Woods Centre and its other Satellite Branch in Jolly Harbour this fully functioning branch opens five days a week from Monday to Friday. Branch hours are 9am to 2:30pm They offer all types of Private and Commercial Insurances along with new, renewal and claims insurance transactions on behalf of their principals Massy United Insurance Ltd. formerly United Insurance Company Limited.

Their two friendly, efficient, knowledgeable staff here at the Falmouth Branch have a combined insurance experience of over 33 years. They make sure you get the best, highest quality insurance coverage for your specific needs. Come and meet them...
